

Meet the Trio Media Family:

Good Old-Fashioned Values Meet 2025 Technology

By Chris, Myna, Yusuf, and Yalina Doyle

Chris, Myna, Yusuf, and their newest addition, Yalina, are the heart of Trio Media. What began as a side project during the pandemic quickly evolved into a mission-driven business rooted in service, accessibility, and strong family values.

Meet Chris – Founder of Trio

Chris's mission is simple but powerful: raise awareness about ADA compliance, make the digital world more accessible, and help small businesses thrive. As a professional with autism, Chris brings a uniquely insightful perspective and an exceptional eye for detail. He leads the way in auditing websites, ensuring every element aligns with accessibility standards. Chris is also passionate about staying ahead of emerging technologies, always looking for new ways to optimize performance and create value for clients.

Meet Myna

Developmental Lead (High-Tech Coding)

After years of coding for big banks, Myna traded corporate life for something closer to her heart: creativity, service, and freedom. Now, as tech lead at Trio Media, she brings serious coding skills to small businesses by helping them build, fix, and fine-tune websites that aren't just beautiful, but accessible to all. With a sharp eye for detail and a passion for inclusive design, Myna makes sure every site doesn't just work — it works for everyone.

Meet Yalina

The Youngest Team Member

Following in her brother's footsteps, Yalina is the newest (and most adorable) member of the Trio Media crew. Spending her days alongside Mommy, she offers moral support during coding marathons, complete with feeding and snuggle breaks. Her coos during client calls and radiant smiles remind everyone what truly matters.

Meet Yusuf

Chief of Sales (Snack Division!)

As the saying goes, "Start them young," and Trio Media took that to heart! Yusuf has been part of the journey since day one. Now 3 years old, he goes to work with Daddy every day and wouldn't dream of missing it. He brings plenty of laughter, curiosity, and most importantly official snack breaks to the team. Next time you see him, don't be shy, ask why he loves working for Trio. His answers are always priceless. His latest? "To buy toys, cookies, and diapers for my baby sister!"

Work Hard, Play Hard — Together

The Trio Media family believes in balance. You'll often find them at the local bowling alley (sometimes up to five times a week!), browsing farmers markets, enjoying community events, and soaking up all the best moments life has to offer. Don't hesitate to invite them to your next event — they'd love to meet you!
